

Girls' Religious Awards 2009-2010

General Information

Girls' Religious Awards is a national award program for girls ages 8-18 and is open to all Catholic girls of the Archdiocese, girls do not need to be a Girl Scout to participate.

Orientation

Adult advisors wishing to share their faith with Catholic girls through this national award program are required to attend one of the following orientation meetings:

Thursday, September 10, 2009

-or-

Tuesday, September 29, 2009

Both meetings are held at the Catholic Faith Formation Office, 3212 N. 60 St. in Building A's conference room. They begin promptly at 7:00 pm. You do not need to register to attend an orientation meeting.

It is very important that you attend a meeting if you have not done so in the past.

If you have attended an orientation meeting in the past and have attended the Archdiocese Safe Environment Training you are not required to attend an orientation meeting but you must register with our office by phone by September 25th so that we may order your books and get the registration forms to you.
